

cimc

center for instructional materials and computing
school of education @ university of wisconsin - madison

WHO WE ARE

The CIMC (Center for Instructional Materials & Computing) is a library for the Students, Faculty and Staff of the UW-Madison School of Education. The CIMC also serves the Wisconsin Education Community. Our mission is to provide a center for teaching and learning that fosters, hope, growth, possibility and community building.

WHERE WE ARE

The CIMC is located in the Teacher Education Building, 225 N Mills St. Metered parking is available on Mills & Brooks Streets. Wheelchair entrances are located through the side doors on Dayton St.

WHEN TO VISIT

CIMC Fall & Spring Semester Hours:

- > Mondays – Thursdays: 8am to 10pm
- > Fridays: 8am to 5pm
- > Weekends: Noon to 5pm

CIMC Break Hours:

- > Mondays – Fridays: 9am to 5pm
- > Weekends: Closed

CIMC Summer Hours

- > Mondays – Fridays: 8am to 5pm
- > Weekends: Closed

WHO TO CALL

Our friendly staff members are happy to assist you!

- > General / Circulation: 608-263-4750
- > Reference: 608-263-4751
- > Computer Lab: 608-263-4340
- > Reserves: 608-263-5797

WHAT WE HAVE

Materials in Our Circulating Collections

- > Professional Collection: titles in the theory and practice of education
- > PreK-12 classroom materials: textbooks, children’s literature, software, videos
- > Journals, Microfiche – (ERIC & KCDL), and Tests (inventories, assessments)

Equipment (for School of Education faculty, staff and students)

- > Digital equipment: cameras, camcorders, laptops, external hard drives, computer projectors.
- > Other equipment: overhead projectors, microphones, tripods, tape recorders, transcribers, audio-teleconferencing equipment, TV/VCR/DVD players, PA systems, and mobile instructor stations.

Computing / Media Production Resources / Spaces

- > Wireless access
- > An open computer lab (Windows and Macintosh)
- > Computer classrooms (Windows and Macintosh)
- > Scanners (flatbed, microfiche & slide) and printers (laser, photo, poster & slide/film)
- > Small Group and Individual Study Spaces
- > Seminar Room (Room 302) and Large Group Meeting Spaces
- > Copystand photography room
- > A hot roll-laminator, wide-format laminator and foam-core mount, sticker maker, binding machine, transparencies, VHS tape-to-tape dubbing, VHS to DVD dubbing, and TV/VCR viewing units

For more information, visit our web site:

WHAT WE CAN DO FOR YOU

Our reference staff is here to help you find what you need. We're also happy to recommend information sources and provide assistance using them. For help finding answers:

- > In person - 10am to 7pm M-F and 12pm to 5pm Sat and Sun. (during the regular semester)
- > Email – askcimc@education.wisc.edu
- > IM (AOL, Yahoo, MSN and ICQ): cimcref

Instruction Services Phone - 608-263-5949

Our instruction sessions are designed in a collaborative context with SoE faculty to meet the needs of SoE students. We help address specific strategies to meet Information and Technology Literacy standards, including:

- > Graduate level research and study, including RefWorks and EndNote
- > Integration of software into teaching and learning (Dreamweaver, iMovie, Photoshop, Captivate, PowerPoint, Inspiration)
- > Use of Education resources (ERIC, Education Full Text, the Professional Development Collection, Proquest, Academic Search) from on campus or at a distance.

Network / Computing Services Phone - 608-263-4339

Our Network and Computing staff are ready to assist School of Education students, staff and faculty with the development of web sites, e-mail lists, and electronic conferencing.

Article / Book Delivery Services

We can help get you the resources you need, regardless of where you or those resources might be located.

- > Library Express – For items not available at UW-Madison, or for paid desktop delivery
Request articles, book chapters, books, and other materials through Library Express.
For more info visit <https://madison.hosts.atlas-sys.com/illiad/logon.html>
- > UW-Madison – From one library to another
Via MadCat, request materials housed in another UW-Madison library be delivered to the UW-Madison library most convenient for you.
For more info visit <http://madcat.library.wisc.edu>
- > UW-System Borrowing – From one UW-Campus to another
Via MadCat, request materials owned by another UW campus and have them delivered to the UW-Madison library most convenient for you.
For more info visit <http://madcat.library.wisc.edu> and click on UW-System Search
- > Distance Book Delivery – For students, faculty and staff
If you home or school lies outside of Dane County, books and articles can be sent via Library Express.
See the Distance Service website at <http://www.library.wisc.edu/libraries/distance/>

Wisconsin Teachers

Wisconsin K-12 Educators may obtain library borrowing cards at no cost. Individuals must provide proof of employment with a Wisconsin School District. They must also bring in two forms of ID with current address information, one of which must be a photo ID.

Cards are available at:

Memorial Library – Card Registration Desk
728 State Street | phone: 608-262-4447

Hours for card registration: M-F 8am-6pm, S-S 10am- 4pm.

Cards are valid campus wide, and must be renewed each year in June (restrictions may apply).

FAST FACTS

The CIMC welcomes over 100,000 visitors each year.

We circulate nearly 40,000 items each year and have over 90,000 holdings.

We have 8 full time staff members, 5 graduate project assistants, and over 30 student staffers.

The CIMC is 1 of 2 libraries in the UW-Madison School of Education.

The CIMC is 1 of 44 libraries in the UW-Madison Library System.

For more information, visit our web site:

Saved as share/general/brochure/factsheet_06.doc