

Using WiscCal to view CIMC Lab Calendars

1. Launch web browser
2. go to <http://wisccal.wisc.edu> and login with your NetID.
3. In the task bar on top of the window, click the  icon
4. In the “search” field type SOED 348 TEB. Click “Find.” After the name appears in the list below, click the “add to favorites” button. Repeat this step for SOED 346 TEB and SOED 330 TEB, SOED 356 TEB.

5. After adding the CIMC labs to your favorites, highlight the name of the lab you wish to view, and click “view”
6. To switch between computer labs, return to the favorites list at the top toolbar, choose the appropriate lab number, and click “go”.

Your Favorites:

- SOED 348 TEB = Windows Lab
- SOED 346 TEB = Mac Lab
- SOED 356 TEB = Mac Lab
- SOED 330 TEB = PC Lab for occasional use

The next time you login to WiscCal, the favorites will be present in the list.
